PROJECTS

UI Design Mini Project

I designed the mobile version of the application, drawing on knowledge from the Human-Computer Interaction Design course as part of a mini-project. I took on the challenge of creating the user interface of this application using Figma.

Online Shops Mini Project

I designed a user-friendly e-commerce platform that allows users to browse products, manage their shopping carts, and place orders. The system also includes an admin panel for inventory management.

Cruel Carrot Project

I am one of the character illustrators for this project and an assistant in character design and voice acting, collaborating with two other project headers, Arisara and Kosittidach. The primary software I utilized for character design was Procreate, after which I meticulously assembled all the components to create scenes intended for animation using Adobe Animate.
